Ocean in the Nut Shell

“Dedication and Excellence lead to great accomplishments.”

Taking an appreciative approach, yet again we present before you an insightful edition covering a wide spectrum of events conducted through the Virtual Stage. Breakfast Around the World – a Round Square Event, Sagar – Canford Collaborative Project Presentation, the Sunday Cookery cum Craft Classes, and a lot more to be fascinated and amused on. Precisely, Young Sagarians have not only vigorously participated but also expanded and extended their knowledge on various themes.

Let's begin with some announcements. The plethora of competitions held on 74th Independence Day ignited the competitive spirit in all. School received innumerable entries for different competitions and we sincerely thank all entrants for their valuable and creative submissions. Kudos to all the partakers and hearty Congratulations to all the victors.

‘CANFORD Connect’

“Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success.”

- Henry Ford

Having students work together to accomplish an objective help them to recognise the value of the contribution and perception of all team participants. This collaboration also prepares them for life in the next century.

Sagarians presenting:

English – History Collaborative Project on Social, Cultural and Political themes.

Breakfast Around the World: Round Square Activity

Conducted By: Godspell College, Argentina

‘It was a month-long activity. The key idea of the activity was cooperating and discovering what sort of Breakfast one has. The Students talked about the range of breakfast differing on Taste, Culture and Eating Habits.’

Miscellaneous

From the Heart of Your School

'The football ground is deserted
and alone,
Bare of you as you were gone,
The leaves are dead on that bench
of stone'
No matches lost; No matches won.
No noises heard, No uniforms
worn,
The day repeats its cycle from
dusk to dawn,
Seasons came, Seasons are gone.
Some sunny days, some rains and some storms.
The foliage is green again full of chirps,
The arcade is less walked, full of worms.
Creepers have found their passage on the Amphitheatre seats and around.
The graffiti still remains,
Echoes the emptiness sound,
The classrooms, the hostels',
Which once were so profound.
The azure has changed so many shades,
You may not be here,
But your memory never fades.
The observatory is closed,
And craters are unseen.
The dome is void,
Missing you utterly,
Your interests were so keen.
In Aravalli hills of Rajasthan, there is a river of knowledge deep,
It yearns for all its boys' and girls'
Treasures the memories, it shall keep.
It longs for you all'
Its beloved is away in home.'

- Priyanka Singh

‘Longing for those chirpings in and around the Campus.
You and I have memories lengthier than the road that extends out ahead.’

I’m Unique

‘Creativity is an inevitable element of comprehensive teaching approach. Rather than just learning what is in the tutorial through regular lectures and examinations, transporting in some art and fun entuses the young learners. Let’s catch some glimpses of creative classroom activity, ‘Badge Making’. It had been performed in class VI to cater their additional talents into the regular teaching lessons.’
